(16) A note summarising the views of the Dy Comrs is put up for orders

SR 16/2/16 all the Dy Comrs are of opinion that the Irish Electorate is unwieldy and that a modification of the rules in this respect is necessary. A perusal of their suggestions shows that the unanimous opinion is to substitute ~~[illegible]~~ (1) Representative Assembly Members (2) Electors of the members for the Representative Assembly (3) Town & Taluk Progress Committees, (4) Taluk & District Committees; for the Irish Electorate.

RG 15/2/16 Probably the present electorate may continue for another year or so.

16)

The last election took place in 1914 and the next one is due in 1917. The electorate as now constituted (Vide flag) was considered unwieldy and the Dy Commissioners were consulted in the matter All of them concur in thinking it unwieldy and have sent up different proposals which may be classified under three heads.

17) Since there is unanimous opinion as regards the unwieldy nature of the existing electorate the necessity of modifying it may be taken as accepted.

18) It may be modified in one or other of the following ways. ~~It may be carried~~

1. It may be formed of the Rep Hon members in the
2. It may be formed of Th Pro and Dist Con members
3. It may be a mixed body consisting of the above two and the members or delegates of public other bodies or societies.

Proposal I is in substance the opinion of the Dy Commissioners of Hassan and Kolar. But it is open to the objection that it would be virtually conferring powers on members who have already exercised similar powers in electing eight members from the Assembly under para 1 (iii) of the order. Hence proposal cannot therefore be accepted.

Proposal II is supported by the Dy Commrs of NOTE—Contn. sheet.

GPB—60,000—7-11-13

Bangalore and Kolar. When the membership is thrown open to the whole district, the electorate constituted as above would be rather a small body. It might be quite desirable if one of their own members had to be returned, as their representative, to the conference. This point deserves consideration as such a step is likely to make the membership of the Committee more attractive.

Proposal III refers to a mixed electorate. It is in effect retaining the existing electorate accepting in one respect which has the effect of materially reducing the number instead of members eligible to vote, it is proposed to have only members eligible to be elected as Rep Ass members. - With that change the electorate will consist of

1. Members eligible to be elected as Rep Ass Mem
2. Members of Taluk Bo and Dist Committees.
3. Members of Municipal Boards.
4. Delegates of recognised public Ass^ns having more than one hundred members.
5. Delegates of Co-operative Federal Unions and Joint Stock companies. (Where there are no federal unions delegates of Co-operative societies).
6. Delegates of Trades Associations. Agri:

Assns. and similar bodies.

and 7. delegates of model village. Improvement and 8. Committees, Panchayats of ten years standing.

(19) The constitution described above is, it is supposed, sufficiently large including all important interests so that a person elected by them may be considered as a popular representative in the widest sense of the term. While the above proposal retains the popular character of the electing electorate, its number is less than a third of the original. The formation of such an electorate is favored by the Dy Commrs of Chitaldrug, Shimoga, Tumkur and Kadur, though they vary from each other in some respects.

(20) The election may be held as now at districts and all taluk headquarters but the voting papers with a summary may be forwarded immediately to the Secy. Eco. conference by the presiding officer of each Station on his leaving being sent to the Dy Comm^r who is to tabulate and summarise the results and forward the results to the Secy. By this method time, it is hoped, avoid considerable delay.

The proposed electorate is much smaller than the old as "persons eligible to be elected as RH's" are substituted for "persons qualified to vote." The size of the electorate will have to be considered with respect to each voting centre, i.e. a taluk. Even under the proposed conditions the number of persons that may have to meet at a taluk will be between 80 and 90 on the average. Considering that only one member is to be returned for each district it is a point for consideration whether the electorate cannot be reduced still further. If instead of "persons eligible to be elected as RH's" only "RH's are included the total no will be greatly appreciably reduced. The electorate for each taluk will be about 30. The only possible objection against this would be that the quorum would look very small as it cannot be conveniently placed at more than a third or say less. If there is no objection to that, the electorate may stand as now proposed with the modification class (1) modified as stated above.

x		7
xi.		2
		58

Note. (11

The electorate under B is a little bigger than that under A. But the no to be elected under B is one for each district whereas under A it is one for two districts. Under C the no is very much less though several other bodies are included as persons eligible to be elected as RH's are taken instead of those qualified to vote. The strength of a Taluk electorate will stand thus at 60 - If that still number is considered unwieldy, it may be still reduced by only having Rep member under iii class iv instead of persons eligible to be elected as RH's. All the voters will be representatives in one capacity or other; and as only one member is to be returned perhaps the no of voters for a centre may be quite enough.

If the latter alternative is accepted, the draft order may be modified accordingly.

26) The experience during the last election was that very few of the persons qualified to elect members of the Darana Pattaa Assembly came up to vote. Each being entitled to a single vote, they form such a large majority that if they were all to vote they would overwhelm other voters. It is therefore proposed to substitute for this electorate persons eligible as electors of members of the Pattaa Assembly. Even if this is regarded as too much, any members of the Pattaa Assembly may be included in this division. This will reduce the electorate for each Catuka to 30 or against 40 and 50 if the substitution proposed is accepted and nearly double the number under the existing rules.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No 2432-9/A and I 36-15-5 dated 27th ultimo requesting my views in the matter of amending the rules for the constitution of District Electorates for the election of non-official members to the Economic Conference, I have the honor to state that I agree with you in thinking that the first electorate referred to in the Notification No G.7097 dated 5th March 1914 is very unwieldy.

In order to minimise the number of the first electorate without hampering fair representation, I beg to suggest that instead of persons entitled to elect members to the Representative Assembly, the Taluk Progress Committee members excluding the Chairman and the official Secretary, if any, the non-official members of the District Committee and its associates for the year of election may be constituted the first electorate. To this might be added members of the Dassara B list i.e. persons eligible to become Dassara Representative Assembly Members.

This will reduce the number from 1488 to nearly 724 so far as this District is concerned and will also serve as an incentive to Taluk Progress Committee members, non-official members of the District Committee and its associates to work for the development of the object of the Economic Conference and compete to become members of the respective bodies in as much as they will have a vote in electing a non-official member to the Conference itself.

The remaining five electorates may continue without any change in their constitution with restrictions imposed in paras 6 and 7 of the rules.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 2432-9/A & I.36-15-5 dated the 27th November 1915 regarding the District Electorates for the election of non-official members to the Economic Conference, I have the honour to state that the first electorate referred to in Notification No. G.7097/G.m.69-13-48 dated the 5th March 1914 is undoubtedly too unwieldy and may be omitted altogether as the elected Dassara Representative Assembly members have themselves the choice of electing 8 members out of their own Assembly for the Economic Conference. I would suggest therefore, that the members of the Taluk Progress Committee may be substituted for the 1st Electorate as this will be an incentive for the good work they are expected to do.

There was some discussion on the subject. Mr. C.Srinivasa Rao was of opinion that a member should be chosen by nomination by the Deputy Commissioner who would be able to judg of the capacity of individuals in the District.

Resolved that the present electorate is no doubt unwieldy and it may with advantage be modified. The Committee are of opinion that a member should be nominated by the Deputy Commissioner who will be able to judge of the merits and capacity of candidates which, if not possible, the Committee would suggest that the electorate be confined to only District and Taluk Committees or to the Mysore Representative Assembly members in the District.

Sir,

Adverting to your letter No. 2438-9/A. & I. 36-15-5 dated 27th November 1915 calling for my opinion as to the necessity to amend the rules re: the constitution of District Electorates for the election of non-official members to the Economic Conference, I have the honor to state that the subject in question was discussed at the last meeting of the District Committee held on the 22nd ultimo and the committee is of opinion that the first electorate referred to in Government Notification No. S.7027/3.M.39-15-48 dated 5th March 1914 is too unwieldy and that the power of voting may be restricted to such of the voters for the Taluka Representative Assembly as pay an annual assessment of Rs. 200/- or a mohatarfa of Rs. 20/- each and also to Graduates of 10 years' standing. I agree with the views of committee and commend the changes proposed by them for acceptance of Government.

A copy of this resolution is herewith sent for reference.

Subject

Suggesting that the Dasara Representative Assembly members may be empowered to vote for the election of non-official members to the Economic Conference, instead of the separate electorate prescribed in Government order no. G.7097/G.M.69-1 dated 5th March 1914, regarding the election of non-official members to the Conference of the Representative Assembly are entitled to vote for the election of non. Official members to the Conference under Government Order No: G. 7097/G.M. 69-13-48 dated 5th March 1914. The average number of persons for each Taluk of this District, eligible to choose members for the Representative Assembly, comes up to 85 as per lists of voters prepared in connection with the recent Triennial elections of the Members of the Representative Assembly. I am therefore of opinion that this electorate is unwieldy and I would suggest that the Representative Assembly members themselves may be empowered to vote for the election of non-official members to the Economic Conference.
